OK I have had a few questions about this. most of the info for the meat of the challenges and how they will work will come with part 2 but to sum up what the smackdown is basically, the smackdown is a series of challenges that will last over the summer. you need to sign up and decide your character. the character you select will be the character you will use for each challenge.

We will all be doing images based on a fictional superhero game show. what you put in your image will effect the fiction gameshow. the actual images will be put into a poll to decide "best of" their will be different sections of eligibility for the challenges, some will be looking for humour others will be looking for action. but as long as you have fun that is all that really matters.

For the first round all you need to do is a pin-up intro image of your character the real fun starts next month when the fictional contest starts and the characters start to interact you decide the number of images per month you put into the challenge all images will be based on a basic outline that will be sent out to participants at the start of the new round. I hope this explains things a little better.

Round one ends at the end of june so sign up and get your pinup entry in.

so far we have

Winterhawk as Vampirella

Biohaz_Daddy as The Crimsom Noodle

Matrixblur as Winterhawk

Thayne_Luc as Firebird

Dark_Wanderer as the AzBat Batman
