my only comments...I think they tried to cram too much into 1 movie (the Dark Phoenix Saga could have been a trilogy unto it's self), and some characters (Rogue, Colossus, and Cyclops) got shorted on screen time. As to all the other changes from the comics, I can accept that as poetic license. And as to the death of characters, everyone of the major characters killed in this film have been believed dead before, and got better. Only Uncle Ben stays dead, true believes.

Now as to X-4, I vote for Apocalypse...
