OK Here is the next draw off. (biohaz had to sit this one out so I am filling his shoes) Due 2 weeks from today June 28th.

The idea behind this one is that your favorite hero has been killed/retired/put in the looney bin or something else that would take him out of action.

His sidekick or someone else decides to keep his legend alive and put on his costume as use his name.

Your job is to redesign the characters costume to be more suitable with the person that has taken over the role of the hero of your choice. (examples: Azbat when Bats back got broken, Steel when Supes was temp dead, Tim Drake's new robin etc etc)

Same name slightly different costume and new person. Please note it doesn't have to be the same gender.

Same basic rules as the last one.

Now Draw!!
