First, I really enjoyed this film. Visually it was stunning. The effects were awesome!!! The flying was seamless. The story...welllll...it could have used some work. Brandon was an acceptable Clark/Supes. He has the look for it. It would have been nice to see a bit more of Clark as a reporter. How does he keep his job if he doesn't do anything. Kate Bosworth is a blonde! She doesn't look right as a brunette, but she did a fine job as Lois. No complaints from me. The kid...was there a kid? I've seen films with great kid actors, this wasn't one of them.

Spoilers: I know how Lois got that kid. If you saw the second movie, you should also know how she got that kid, but Lois doesn't know how she got that kid. Superman used his memory erasing kissing power to make her forget. Now how is she gonna explain to Richard why his son has super powers. I feel kind of sorry for Marsden. Every film he's in, his girl has the hots for another guy.

Even with it's flaws, I give it 3 1/2 out of 5 stars. Not great, but not bad enough to kill the franchise.
