OK everyone here are the rules for Round #2.

Everyone in the contest should now have the scripts for round 2. The scripts are vague on purpose.

Your Job is to fill in the blanks and make a fun and exciting story.

What you need to do is make an image of your character (and any other character/characters) doing something as part of the script.

For example: you could make an image of your character taking part in the challenge against one of the other characters or You could do an image of your character plotting or planning with another character. The script is the basis of the major events that are going to happen.

(Remember the real contest is handled like any other contest here) But the fictional Game show that your superhero characters are a part of is up to you. And winning the fake contest does not automatically mean you will win the real one.

If your character gets maimed or killed by another artist, it is up to you to make an image explaining what happened to them to bring them back in the game (i.e.: resurrected, cloned, raised from the dead. whatever. there are no real rules for how your characters conduct themselves.) The events of the Fiction contest do not directly effect the outcome of the real contest... remember we are in here to have a good time.

Teamups are strongly encouraged at this point. You can make multiple images for this part of the contest. Due date end of July

Last Rule.. Have fun.
