Wow Captain... you thought the Hulk was good?

This thread just goes to show everyone's different tastes in comic movies. Kinda interesting. I really enjoyed Superman... and walked out of Hulk. So out of the three you (Captain) mentioned my order would be Hulk (Still have not seen the whole thing), Catwoman (Will never see again) and Superman Returns (I will most likely buy it and put it next to Superman). This almost sounds like it needs to stem off into it's own thread. Top... uhm... 5 favorite comicbook movies... or top ten... But I don't want to start...
