I'm sure it is like opening presents for you - you can probably open 10 thumbnails in 10 minutes without getting booted off the net. I haven't opened ANY Lady Slut picks in a month. Know why? It takes me 10 min. to get on the net (maybe). It takes me another 5 min. to get on HM (maybe). I might get to do one or two things at HM before getting cut off. I might be able to log back on (maybe).

I like HM because it is the most user-friendly site I've ever seen. However, the Lady Slut picks are not user friendly to we retarded dial up cretins.

So, basically what you are saying (kinda) is that even if Lady HM's thumbs where actually the image they represent (never) that you would still not be able to (Always) look at all of them in one sitting anyway (you are correct Jr). And since you sometimes can't log back on (likely excuse) then you think that the top ten needs to be the top ten (again... never). Maybe you should go to a public library to look at the top ten (excellent Idea JR.) and then go home to suffer the agony of dial up for the rest of the HM fun.

The above was meant to be funny (No Really) and not an attack on my favorite fem-perv.
