I used to pay $23 a month for dial-up. I now pay $17 a month for DSL.

Maybe Miss Vee lives out in the boondocks and not capable of getting Cable or DSL. I have friends that live in a rural area and ended up stuck with dial-up.

Anyway, I LOVE the thumbnails! I trust the fact that Lady Heromorph doesn't greenlight pics that aren't worthy. So I know that whatever I click will be good. I have yet to be disappointed.

Besides, the whole purpose of this site is to improve our art. Being exposed to different styles of art can only improve what you are currently doing. Exchanging ideas is how great things are made.
