During the early to mid-eighties, Tony Stark was styled after Timothy Dalton. He played the prince of the hawkmen in the "Flash Gordon" movie. He had dark hair, a mustache and was very sauve and charming. However, he is probably too old for the part today. Also, Alex Ross, in his "Marvels" limited series, modeled Tony Stark after Errol Flynn, the swashbuckling actor of the 30's and 40's (also a bad choice cuz he's ...well, dead)

sigh I have way too much free time....
