Our illustrious winner of the "Next of Kin" draw off has apparently had something in mind to challenge us all. As he puts it Quote:

"No time wasted thinking this one up :) I had been wanting to see this done for a while."

The subject matter is all up to you this time, but the method and presentation are what DW has stipulated.

Quote:

"Sketch book style with underlining manequine/doll frame. No erasing. 1 pencil only. No alterations natural or computer aided (this even means text and backgrounds and anything in between)."

So put down the erasers and rev up your pencils!

This one is due at the final stroke of midnight 7/23/06
