Hey, hey, HEY! ...hey!...hey!...hey!...stop it!

While Marvel is a shadow of it's former self, nobody chooses DC over Marvel right now unless they are blind and can't read. In which case their only need for comics is as toilet paper. And then DC will do just fine.

Hmmm...actually...when I think about it... you have a point. Sort of. Let's just agree that they both suck.

They should fire all the writers and hire us heromorphers to do the comicbooks. It couldn't get worse, could it? Well, apart from the addition of roswell porn...
