I admit that I haven't actually read any of the civil war books, but I'm glad they're doing something to shake up the character

Why don't they just kill everybody except for two characters and let them re-populate the world with mutants. That would shake things up. OHH...Ohh... and all the babies that these two have can be reincarnations of all the past dead characters. And since they will all be related... Then they will start inbreeding... man... now this is a story. Super-billy and his side kick Banjo Bubba. "Say thar Magnomayan... squeeEEEEel lok a piyug!"
