Heromorph has dramatically changed it's posting policy. Please read the new posting policy here http://heromorph.com/heromorph2/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id=221&start=0#forumpost1594

If you have any questions about the posting policy, please reply to this topic.

80% of the current site members have been removed from the queue, so your art will still be displayed as soon as you post it. we choose to grandfather the most active members of the group and not put them into the queue system. If members the currently do not have the queue are unable to follow the rules of the posting policy, they will be put in with the site noobs and have a queue.

If you are new to Heromorph, you will have a queue, what this means is that your art will not be displayed as soon as you post it. Your art will wait until it has been approved into the gallery. Please read the posting policy for details on how to remove your self from the queue, and have the privilage of posting instantly.
