Sean Mercer: So that's what's got you green around the gills this morning. The first sign of spring in the bush and the young bucks start butting heads.

Kurt Muller: So what?

Sean Mercer: So... I can't answer that. Just don't let it gum up the works around here.

Kurt Muller: Oh, I won't. But I won't let the Frenchman have a free hand, either.

Sean Mercer: Oh this is gonna be great! The Indian is knocked off, I've got a woman photographer on my hands, now you and the Frenchman break out in monkey bites and we're a month behind already!

Kurt Muller: So?

Sean Mercer: So don't let him have a free hand.
