In 18 years....

We had a new member to the HeroMorph family born last night.

ERL (initials) I call him baby Earl (Makes my sister crazy since that isn't his real name)... born at 3:15a. 9.7 pounds and 21 inches long. He looks just like his dad. OH... sorry... he isn't mine. He was born to my sister and brother in-law.

Lets raise our glasses to my sisters 22 hour labor. Groan No thanks to 22 hours of pain... I can't handle getting the wind knocked out of me.

Now.. to crawl back under my desk and go back to sleep.
