And Logan... Bob Howard lived in Cross Plains. I should know... I talked to the girl (Well, old lady) he was dating right before he shot himself in the melon. Lovely old lady. Novellen Price. He was born somewhere around Abileen though.

you are right, Jr, my bad....I read an article recently in the paper about the anniversary of his death and I was gonna drive down there, but a lot of Cross Plains was destroyed last yr by wildfires....

Of course, completely off subject here... but did any of Cross Plains survive the wildfires? I know it was bad... Oh, and I see the owner of the Bob Howard estate at least once a month. That Feller has a lot of cool shit of his.... that is if it didn't get destroyed in the fires.
