HEY!!! How come alot of the pic I have posted in the cookie jar keeps getting removed? Even when the artist name who drew the piece is clearly posted.

What gives?

It was suggested I respond to this. The Cookie Jar is for the posting of base images and other raw material that other artists need or may use. It may also be used for coloring requests, in moderation. It is not in any way your, or anyone's, personal gallery. If you overpost or put up tiny, crap images that no one will ever use, they will be cleared out.

That Is All.
