Animation, Easter Eggs--it's not the toys, it's the way you play with them (And yes, I'm aware BioHaz and I are trailing in the polls. No need to point that out, thank you.)

Now I'll grant you, DW and Bill's is damned impressive, and 'Hawk surprised no one, I suppose. But the dark horse, the sheer coolness factor, has got to be ours. We've all seen JLA shots, yes, they look very pretty and Poser is tricky to get right, I get it thank you. And for all the attention to detail, hell, everybody's doen DoFP. Never with Woody from Toy Story, but that's only a tiny thing. Where else are you going to see werewolves fight zombies? Based on sheer originality, I think we all know where the votes should go.
