i find this site useful because it has gallerys arranged by a wide variety of categories, and there are little thumbnail previews of each gallery. BE ADVISED this is an ADULT site, so don't go there if you're under 18. also, there are a few popups here and there, so make sure your popup blocker is on. all links open in a new window. most of the images in my own base bank i have found here. quality and size vary greatly.
