In case there are some who haven't seen it...

There is some incredible work being posted in the 3D gallery by two Heromorph newcomers, ubald and Raddar!!

With the utmost deference to our 3D maestros (bluebeetle3, cynanure, JimCorrigan, Junfan, Khastagir, murka, tartanninja, Voltron2000, Winterhawk, WebGeek, and many, many more), these two are kicking some major butt!

Each day, the posts get better and better. It's almost an embarrassment of riches for the rest of us!

And so far, they don't show any signs of letting up. It's like they're egging each other on, while the rest of us get to just sit back and enjoy the show!

Go check it out!

And to ubald and Raddar, a hearty Heromorph welcome! Keep it up! We could watch you two go at it for months!

Thanks!
