I wouldn't mind paying for such a pic but I don't have a paypal account. I'm pretty used to mailing checks over electronic transactions.

My Rates $30 USA for a single character/single manip.

If you would like me to go ahead with this project. I would like to support Heromorph, so Payment can be made by Donation to Heromorph via paypal (see the little donation button on the top left of the homepage), once I recieve confirmation payment has been made to the site by the Moderators, I will begin the image.

I think you will find my rates extremely low compared to my fellow artists here at Heromorph. That is because I am extremely picky as to what, if any, commissions/request I will except.
