Okay all you writers you have until monday midnight to gete in on this challenge, after that I will be picking an order for the chapter assignments and I will PM you with the order you will write in. This will be posted in the regular fan fiction so it has to be clean, no porn. Maybe the next time, but for the first one we need to have it available for everyone to see. The Charater as of now is going to be the Huntress, so if you might want to start getting your ideas ready.
