hey,

well, I suppose I was kidding a bit to say "mourn", though it is unfortunate she wasn't even 40. my mom listened to the news and supposedly it was a combo of natural causes and meds. one of the DJs joked that her son killed himself because he turned out to be the dad. I don't know about that. as for the request, I did say IF anyone was interested. you are certainly under no obligation if you don't wish to and I certainly won't be offended.
