hey all,

I got an interesting request to make. the idea is the Brazilian Graces, heroines who embody all that is good with the citizens. the outfits would be bodystocking with the flag's colors though how they are arranged is up to the artist. the names are Esperanca, Fe and Charity which of course are Hope, Faith and Charity. the models I have in mind are Anna Beatriz Barros, Danielle Sarayahe, and Fernanda Motta(I don't care which model is which grace). I was thinking maybe one of our Brazilian contingent, 6.3, Lilith, Besendiru(?)or whoever, might be interested in tackling it. the URL is:
