Between this and the rest of the foolish things Marvel has done of late, the best that can be hoped for is the Beyonder/Scarlet Witch/Onslaught/Celestials takes pity and destroys/remakes times/rewrite history in an amazing comic event called Crisis of the Secret Mustant Wars.

Really as badly as the continuity of Marvel has been mangled since the money problems it had during the 90s to now, it would really make sense to pull a DC and start everything over again.
