I can't believe it, he's such a n00b that he's posting a thread to introduce himself, what a loser... oh wait, that's me :P

Yeah, I'm the new guy. Got invited over to start posting here. I also post at Renderotica and Renderosity.

Won't go into too much detail. If anyone has seen my work before, you know what I'm all about, for those that don't... well, I do a little bit of everything.

Lessee', I do comics, star wars, star trek, fantasy, sci-fi, real life... boy, this list goes on doesn't it? That also includes 3D and some manips (found 3D was much easier :P).

I also do requests/commissions and I have a whole list of options/rules for doing said work.

So, I'm out and hope everyone enjoys what I have to offer.
