Spoiler alert, bitches

I saw it last night and I enjoyed it.

It was both enjoyable and visually interesting.

Some of the movie didn't make sense to me or ring true (not that truth is big in spiderman, alien symbiotes, people made of sand etc.) But I am more taking about Mary-Jane, being a part of a bad play and getting bad reviews so she become a singer/waitress at a Jazz Bar, what the hell is with that. Fire your fucking agent, If every actor that got a bad review in a movie or a play didn't act again we would have almost no actors. and then the extreme corn of Peter dancing Down the street Winking at girls to show he has become "evil" was just dumb. Hell that's not evil that's just horny and tarded. Now fortunately this wasn't the bulk of the movie. the rest was pretty good, the parts with James Franco were the best in the movie, Personally they could have removed either Sandman and/or Venom and focused more on Franco's Greeny. I really liked the movie despite it's flaws. I think number 2 was better then 3 but only marginally. another really good superhero movie. Next!
