I'm gonna join in, and why not pick, hmm who to pick.....

I will get back after I sleep on it and decide who I want to pick.

really obscure cool guy I got my handle after long long ago, or standby everybody knows and will probably have everyone rendering and loose control of the story in the sake of good fun.

hmm.....

only problem is the really cool guy i want to do, I don't have his costume in 3d....

can we modernize the costumes for this, or do they have to be basic standard issue comic costumes?

you can have what ever costume you want...even one of your own.
