I still can't believe that got that Hack Downey, Jr. to play Stark.

I can believe it. So he sucks and he hasn't been in anything good in a long time..... I suppose that he has the look they wanted.....oh.... and he's more than likely doing this in hopes that a blockbuster like IRONMAN will be his redemption and everybody will forget he was in rehab. Just thank GOD none of the Baldwins got the role.

The Bladwins... now we are talking...

On the upside... Robert Downey must have been a steal... So I guess getting an actor for pennies, or just keeping him stoned the whole time, means that the Special Effects will be awesome.
