Hey all,

It is my understanding that characters who originally signed up for the smackdown but didn't post a pin-up are now fair game. That said, I'd like to use Captain Marvel in my Round 2 submission, given that he is my character's (Black Adam) nemesis. I also plan on giving him a horrible death.

Should this conflict with anyone else's plan for the character, please let me know so we can work this out or just tell me if that isn't something I can do. I'm new around here. :) Thanks for your time.

JB

Sounds good, but you are thinking of a different Captain.
