I've noticed over the past few weeks that connecting over the weekends (especially mid Friday to mid Sunday) is extremely difficult.

Trying to get tech support on the weekend is a bitch, they don't want to go into work and reboot servers on their day off. I agree, it will happen again.

I second what chilly's saying. I've also had these problems connecting on the weekends. Not sure why that is unless it's because traffic to the site is higher on weekends which makes sense.
