thanks! but, uh, i kinda have 'tentativly' to drop out for now.

sorry. >.>

i was hoping to be able to stay the full time, but as university has started up again, and as i'm trying to get on-campus housing, and trying to get finacial aid to PAY for on-campus housing, not to mention my boring ass copy-boy job....well, i haven't time to do much toward round two.

i'm really happy you picked my pic as the best of the first round. i hope i'll get something in before the complete and total end of august, but as i have to take down my comp in a day, i'm not sure. don't be too rough, eh?

i tried. >.>
