Hmm come to think of it shouldn't every one who achieves Sidekick status be appointed a Hero

You know someone to shine my (err, I mean) his shoes, some one to fetch my, er his paper...

minimally someone to carry the pooper-scooper!!

I call for a moritorium to rework the status system.

Sidekicks should be treated like pledges in fraternities, complete with paddling (I threw that in to appeal to BikerBot)

(of course I can say that since I'm a Hero)
