Hey, isn't it bad enough being constantly taken hostage, subjected to a weekly leg-waxings (BD69, you of all...er...people?...should sympathize), having to lie to your friends all the time about the bruises in odd places from "training"...oh...oh...and that's IF you are lucky enough not to be beaten to death by a homicidal clown with a crowbar, or blown up in a plane by a skinless Nazi!!! Man! Can a brother get a little break?! Shame!! Shame on you all!!
