Hey, I'm interested in doing something collaborative for my Round 3 submission. If anyone would be interested in doing something with Black Adam, please PM me and we'll come up with something hopefully cool and funny.

Sure... lets get busy....errr... never mind... I didn't enter.

And the character I was going to use was killed in such a lame, yet funny way by Darkblade... just tell me it was Fire that stepped on Stickman... how appropriate would that have been.

Oh wait.. you said it was Mary Marvel didn't you.... Bastard.

On a side not... as a spectator looking in on this competition and threads... you guys sound like a bunch of fighting school girls.... knock it off before I have to get the yard stick and beat the skirts off or y'all.
