In this case, they are of course correct.

Helen Slater will indeed be portraying Lara, Supergirl's aunt and Clark's mother.

Hold the phone... this thread is called "Good Smallville News" ... not "Lets Make Smallville Suck"

I mean, if mom survived... and she knew Supes was on Earth, why would it take her 18 years to find him. I hate when sh!t like that happens in good shows. I am sure they are going to say something like "Oh Supes... I am so sorry I didn't come sooner, but my ship got stuck in a black hole and launched me... yadda...yadda....yadda..." It will suck ASS having his mom on the show.
