Greetings fellow Smackdown contestants, here is a complete list for everything you will need to construct your very own Nightmother character.

V4.1 w/morphs (I am sure that you can use the basic V4 also) the body morphs are Jadra from synful minds

the face morph is Lillith from Rendorosity with the pale skin mat and red eyes.

The hair is the Petite fleur hair that I dial fitted for V4.

the corset is from the lullue character set the gun and gunbelt is from the V3 liquid halo set and fitted to V4.

The boots are the high tention boots from synful minds and the body suit is just a texture on V4's skin it is the Skye latex Royal purple, and all the other latrix is the black in the same set.

you know everyone is complaining that this smackdown sucks, so why don't we fix that, I challenge the rest of you to post what it takes to make your characters here so we can make this last month of the smackdown something to remember!!!

BTW after the smackdown I will start work on an origin of Nightmother comic to be posted here at HM.

Well good luck to everyone and I look forward to seeing how to construct your characters so we can make this last month a bonanza of action and adventure.
