#1705 here.

I was at the Macy's parade two years ago, and saw the M&M float attack someone. Pretty weird. The wind was way too high for the tethered balloons, but they decided to go ahead with them anyway. The M&M float went way too far over towards the sidewalk and a guywire caught a lamp post, causing the light fixture to fall on someone. Crunch!

I do remember that, Wasmith. Fortunately, I believe that the person who was hit made it through okay.

Btw, John Romita Sr., one of the people who designed the balloon, is going to be at the Big Apple Comic Con in November, if anybody's interested. I'm going to see if I can talk to him about my campaign
