yes, I'm sure it was in black & white, and unfortunately, it wasn't any of those images you posted.

it might have been sometime in March that I saw it, I think (not 100% sure). I bookmarked that particular "hulk" image, and several others around that time, but now, those favorites aren't working. they go to a HM page that says the photo can't be found the links below might be the images i'm looking for. both were in my favorites, and they don't work right now. is there any way for you guys to restore the images, if they ever existed, to begin with?
