Okay, I just started watching the new season and I am OUTRAGED! Lana and Cloe are both back, Kara is early, and they are getting very inconsistant with superpowers(i.e. Kryptonite makes Clark vulnerable to injury, but Kara's chest didn't cave in with superCPR). BTW JR, Lara is, at first, only in flashbacks, but there may be a clone made soon. Also, it looks like Eric Summers' power will now be given to Lana, even tho she already had a completely unrelated power. Are they that challenged, they gotta do reruns now?
