Isn't it weird how Americans love violence yet are so afraid of sex?

But I'm really shocked at all the 'non-adult' requests on this thread. When you think about it 98% of Heromorph is pics of hot chicks in skimpy, sexy outfits. I wouldn't encourage any child to look at even the regular gallery so in my mind all the images on HM are for adults.

I think if I end up with a 'non-adult' request person I will make an adult image anyway. You may not get what you want, but sometimes you get what you need.
