Widen his head a little, give him a squarer jaw then, voila he's a man! Also the lower half of his upper arm looks funky.

I do believe you are right. Weird thing is, I was watching that Bulletproof Monk movie and I noticed that on that young guy when he had his arm folded at one point in the movie the bulge of his tricep was way down closer to the elbow. So I started watching for it in other movies and noticed the same thing. So, seeing this, I tried to do that but it just ended up looking weird.
