You're welcome Neilrok. Evne though Joe is "A Real American Hero" they do have some members that are from other countries, so they're probably going to put some of those guys in it to appease international audiences instead of going with that European Joe idea. Besides most of Cobra is international with the Drednoks being mostly Australians and Destro being Scottish and the Baroness Eastern European. I don't know about WH, but I'm a big Joe fan and hope that it doesn't suck.
