This thread is about people that would like to do commissions for the site and to ask them to pm this account with their rates.

If this account does not receive a PM with rates that we find acceptable, you will not be added as an option for prizes to various contests/challenges that the site has.

If you are an artist that wants to does commission work in general please start a new thread to show the public your rates an availability and/or contact info.

If you are looking for people to do commission work for you, start a new thread with your request/requests

Thank you
