Well, you see, I am using a really sh!tty computer right now, and all attempts to post those pics cause it to freeze up. It's the reason I haven't posted a lot of other stuff too. I will be trying again in the coming week.

So, Daruma, don't you feel stupid for making fun of me before getting the whole story? Yes, I am laughing at you now.

P.S. Don't you ever check your e-mail?
