Moir and Chilly, you both seem like fanatical extremists. No offence, but I think it's people like you two (highly opinionated and deadset on winning) that make trivial arguments like this come to blows or wars.

Ah Darkwinter, you are obviously young. So young that you don't know the meaning of 'fanatical' or 'extremist'.

People who believe passionately enough in something to argue are important, that's how change happens.

I was arguing against Moira because she used false information to support her case. And it ticks me off that someone would spend their time supporting writers when there is actual slave labour happening in the same country.

I'm not sure what the rest of your thing is about, but "lots of angst and shipping for the teen girls..." Teen girls nowadays like shipping? Moving freight by sea? Wow, I am so out of touch...
