WELL, ...

Do yourself a favour and do not and I repeat DO NOT go and see this movie!

This movie I was really disappointed with ,it looks like it was shot by a six year old running with a handycam?

Didn't like that effect with The Blair Witch thingie and still don't like it now?

As for the story there really isn't one other than four people running around Manhattan while a monster is flattening the city?

This might make a great graphic novel so things could be more explained!

Now there's 84minutes of my life I'll never get back,what a waste of time & money!

Should have known after all that hype!

Though the one highlight was the trailers for "HellboyII-Golden Army"
And the "Ironman" trailer.
