As of right now I have no plans to develop a male character, that is not to say that it won't be done, but right now the way things are working out is that I had this figure made for me and then I have chosen to sell it here to help out in an effort to find us a new home that will not limit our site. After I get my money back from selling this figure 100% of all sales will go to HM. The money I get back will go to produce yet another figure and it will continue till we can either make enough money off these figures to be sell sufficient or we find a home and then the proceeds will pay the bills. Now if they come out with an M4 I would be more than happy to look into a character based on his as products come out. As it is I use V4 almost exclusively so that is what we are offering right now. I hope this helps you Volt.
