I would suggest maybe another image where we can compare a image of your character with that of classic Betty Page.

I've seen other V4 celebrity morphs (like the 'Liv Tyler' one I used recently), for some reason they don't seem to look very much like the actual person (although I figure its something with the V4 character, not the person who created the morph itself).

What makes your example image look so much like betty is the hair, horns, and outfit that match that image by artist-who's-name-I-forget
