Well ,I think the new series is quite awesomely well done!
I always love this stuff where the future is liquid and ever changing!
For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction.
And as much as you try and change the past the future is reshaped also?
Lots of room for all sorts of new material.

Actually it's the pre-air pilot for the Sarah Connor Chronicles. This is not the same as what you saw on-air which was edited to make it more acceptable to family viewing.
